

MODERN LUXURY

Brides

CHICAGO SOCIAL

GARDEN PARTY

HELLO, BEAUTIFUL!

GLAMOROUS GOWNS FROM
J. MENDEL, MONIQUE LHULLIER AND MORE

On the Rocks: Engagement Rings Go Retro

Colin Cowie Talks Big-Day Tips

Caterers Dish on Edible Trends for 2013

PLUS

66 of Chicago's Hautest Weddings!

With our sparkling skyline as their backdrop, Lauren and Ryan shared their first dance at Terzo Piano to "Feel It All" by Feist. The bride wore a strapless gown from Vera Wang.

LAUREN COBEY &
RYAN LONG

June 9, 2012
Terzo Piano at the AIC
Photos by David Wittig
Photography

THE COUPLE With their Gokhalevsk looking on, Ryan proposed to Lauren in their Bucktown home. They celebrated with dinner at The Bristol, which would later become the pair's rehearsal dinner site.

THE WEDDING LOLA Event Productions planned the party, and Ben Appetit customized the dinner menu (think charcuterie samplings and spring pea soup).

THE PARTY Lauren's father, Mitchell, made homemade cruffles and candies to satisfy sweet tooth. Bluesgrass band Rick Vickroy & The Bashful Brothers kept partygoers' merrymaking. —CM

The ceremony setting on Blake Terrace

The bride's beautiful bouquet by Kahan Design

Lauren danced in shoes from Brianne Marcia and heels from The Left Bank—and a spritz of L'Éau de Chien perfume!

The wifal dessert by Cake: Sweet Food Chicago

Kahan Design dotted the head table with rose motifs.